Letters to the Editor

E-mail is preferred Send letters to: editor@thehartfordguardian.com. All Hartford Guardian readers correspondence must include the letter writer's city of residence for publication, plus a daytime phone number and address, which will not be published. Letters may be edited for length and clarity.

Guidelines for Article Submissions

The Hartford Guardian magazine and website publish all kinds of nonfiction stories: news articles, film and concert reviews, narratives, profiles, essays and style pieces. The best approach is to first check our mission statement and read the kind of stories we publish before submitting a short query letter outlining the proposed piece, including a resume or description of the writer's experience. E-mail query to editor@thehartfordguardian.com.

You may also send query letters to:
